Is there anything we could do to make your child's experience at nursery even better?

- Flexibility around wrap around care when parents work shifts
- I would love to attend a stay and play with (Child's Name) but sadly it's difficult due to the times I work (childminder) I would love to be able to come to one.
- Nothing. Both my children have adored their time at BMNS.
- No, She loves it.
- Not at the moment, he's doing great! 😊
- We're really happy so far. The children seem settled and enjoy their time so no suggestions at the moment.
- Not that I can think of – he loves it here!
- All is fine so far
- Keep doing what you are doing! We have a lovely, happy boy who loves nursery school and learning. What a fantastic start to his schooling journey,
- (Child's Name) said Forest School and Baking
- If possible to collect her earlier during the afternoon session but we understand it might be disruptive

- Stay and play sessions sometimes in an afternoon so working parents have more opportunities to attend.
- No, (Child's Name) loves going to 'big girl school' 😊

What do you feel the nursery does particularly well for your child or family?

- Brought his confidence on massively
- The support and care that my child received at this nursery is incredible!
- Making them feel welcome, cared for and creating fun things for them to learn and play with.
- Treats each child as an individual
- Keeps her stimulated with lots of different learning activities and so many resources as well as allowing her to play freely.
- The nursery has caring and friendly staff who look out for (Child's Name) well.
- Care
- Relationship building between staff and children. Wonderful
- Encourage strong bonds and promote messy play
- It is a lovely setting with a wide range of activities for the children. The curriculum is broad and covers many different areas which allows all children to shine. The children are given lots of opportunities within the pre school to have new experiences and also explore the wider world. I am so happy we made the decision to move (Child's Name) even though he has only been there a short time, we have noticed him making considerable progress. This is down to the lovely environment and support of staff especially Mrs Woodmansey who is lovely and supportive.

- Varied activities. My child always enjoys nursery and has settled amazing with Mrs Catley!
- Help her settle in and learning new things
- Very well at dealing with his attachment to mum and reassuring him, he's very content.
- (Child's Name) has built lovely relationships with the adults in the setting and talks about them and his learning at home. The learning environment is beautiful and (Child's Name) is excited each day to go and play and learn.
- The staff are very caring and attentive. We really appreciate the updates and seeing how happy and engaged the children are.
- Creates a nurturing environment where the children feel cared for.
- We are happy with the nursery, there is very well communication with family especially
- So many learning opportunities – such a wide variety of provision for the children to explore – evident in floor books, tapestry and through conversations at home. Many trips, stay and plays take place – really lovely experiences. Communication always been brilliant from all!
- Wide range of activities inside and out.
- Made adjustments for (Child's Name) to allow him to get the most he can out of nursery.
- (Child's Name) is very happy at nursery and all of the staff ensure (Child's Name) is happy and all her needs are met.
- The nursery rules and manners align with our family's. this helps us at home. It is a well-equipped nursery allowing our son to experience and develop new skills across all the learning fields. We love walking in together to the peg, morning drop offs are swift and well done. We also love the four-month reviews. We like knowing what he is doing when we aren't around.
- Support activities. Mrs Catley and other members of staff are very kind and supportive towards (Child's Name)
- I like the structure learning and termly book / focus
- The lovely friendly atmosphere puts the boys at ease every day!
- Very friendly, structured and accommodating
- The nursery have helped (Child's Name) settle in and are trying to work on (Child's Name) eating and communicating
- Regular updates on development and pictures on tapestry
- Ensuring that he is making progress and has lots of positive opportunities.
- Understands (Child's Name) really well and he beams every day e knows he is going. This reassures us as parents.
- Supports when needed. Make learning fun. Treat children with love and respect
- Takes times to know your child. Warm and welcoming. A happy environment. Realistic goals for the children.
- The nursery has caring and friendly staff who look out for (Child's Name) well.

- Welcoming, cost nursery where all the staff make the children and their families welcome. Nothing is ever too much for anyone and I have always been given plenty of time and reassurance when I have needed to speak to staff. Myself and my husband trust the staff wholly with our son. Mrs Woodmansey has taken time to really get to know (Child's Name) and his little ways – he loved going to nursery! He is thriving and progressing in so many ways and nursery gives him far more opportunities than we could at home.
- (Child's Name) loved forest school. Great opportunities for the children in the setting and out. They are nurtured and cared for well. (Child's name) also loves the routines and group time.
